

LOCAL ITEMS.

Visit of the Nuncio. Our town was this morning honored by the Papal Nuncio, Monsignore Bedini, accompanied by Rt. Rev. Michael O'Conner, Bishop elect of Erie, Dr. Hayden, of Bedford, and the Rev. Messrs. Walsh, McCullough, Jos. Gallagher, Corbet, and some others.

We are warranted in saying that the impression made by Mons. Bedini upon our citizens has been most favorable. He is a man of remarkably prepossessing personal appearance; apparently in the flower of his age; judging from his remarks this morning he possesses oratorical abilities of a high order; his elocution clear, distinct and forcible, accompanied with all the animation and grace of gesture peculiar to his native land.

As usual on court week, our town is full of citizens from the country, and of others from all quarters. Clothiers, Jewelers, Booksellers, Peddlers, &c., are busy at every corner giving the people's money back. The weather is firm, and should it continue all winter as now, we would agree to forgive old Boreas for past hostilities, and swear or affirm that the mountain climate is non plus ultra the finest under heaven.

Admitted. On Monday last Alexander C. Mullin, Esq., and Charles D. Murray, Esq., were admitted to practice law in the several Courts of this County.

These young gentlemen, we have been told, both passed brilliant examinations before their committee. They both possess that courtesy, ability, and high moral tone which foretoken a highly prosperous career. They have our best wishes for their success.

Our town has been full of strangers this week, our court being in session. The Jefferson and Ebensburg Plank Road has done a smashing business. The Hack Lines of Major Hamilton, and Messrs. Thompson & Brawley, have been running full all week.

Ms. Charles O'Neill, accommodated the citizens from the north of the county, by running a Hack between Ebensburg and Carrolltown. We think that this weeks experience will give an impetus to Plank Road movements.

The Ladies Wreath and Parlor Annual for December has made its appearance. It is embellished with a steel engraving of "The Reprimand," which, if we are not mistaken, appeared in Graham's Magazine five or six years ago; it also contains a beautiful drawing of a Tulip. The readings is choice and interesting. Published at No. 8, Spruce St., New York by Burdick & Reed.

We have received the first number of the Cambria Tribune, published at Johnstown, Pa., by James M. Swank, Esq. It is decidedly a neat paper; the editorials are well written, evincing a high order of talent in its editor.

Sworn in.—Theo. L. Heyer, District Attorney elect, was sworn in and entered upon the duties of his office. Theophilus is a favorite of the Democracy of Cambria. We are sure that he will give satisfaction.

Court was called on Monday morning, last, with Hon. George Taylor, President Judge, and Evan Roberts, and Harrison Kinkadee, Esquires, all upon the bench.

Up to the time of going to press but few Commonwealth cases were disposed of, court having adjourned Thursday evening till Friday afternoon. The Commonwealth vs. A. C. Mullin and Chas. Albright Esqs. for libel against Col. John Piper of Blair Co. Pa., was disposed of, the jury finding them guilty in manner and form as they stood indicted.

Commonwealth vs. James Kaylor.—Indictment for keeping a tippling house. 5th Dec., 1853, deft. pleads "Guilty." Sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs.

Commonwealth vs. Terrence Flood.—Indictment for Assault and Battery. 5th Dec., 1853, not a true bill, and the prosecutor, James Foster sentenced to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Michael Eriusfelt.—Indictment for Assault. 6th Dec., 1853, not a true bill and the prosecutor, James McConnell, sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Foster, Mrs. Bridget Foster, Felix Murphy, Lewis Delahunt and Augustin Hinkle.—Indictment for Riot and Assault, and Battery. 6th Dec., 1853, not a true bill, and Charles Collins, the prosecutor, sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Richard Haslett and David Smay.—Indictment for Burglary. 6th Dec., 1853, defts., being arranged, plead non cul et de hoc, &c. District Attorney similiter et issue, and Jury called and sworn: who do say that the Defendants are guilty in manner and form as they stand indicted.

Commonwealth vs. Daniel Smay.—Indictment for Larceny, Verdict, Guilty.

DIED. In Philadelphia, on Tuesday, Dec. 6, PHILIP P. GEORGE, aged about 29 years. The deceased was a son of Paul George, of Washington township, in this county, and was well and favorably known throughout our county; wherever known he had many friends. Consumption had been gradually wearing down his system. Some few weeks ago, he left his home in company with his brother, F. M. George, Esq., hoping that a voyage to Cuba, and a sojourn in that balmy climate during the winter months would restore him, but on reaching Savannah, Ga., his physician advised him to return. His remains were interred in the burial ground at Summitville.

Black, Respectfully informs the citizens of Hill- darsburg and vicinity that he will remain in this place for a few weeks and holds himself in readiness to manufacture Hair, Straw and Husk Mattresses and Lounges, and do the general up- holstering work of houses, such as hanging cur- tains, carpeting rooms, &c. THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken the above old established stand and entirely refitted and repaired it in such a manner as to render it second to no hotel in the country. The Bar has been newly stocked with the best Wines, Liquors and Segars that could be purchased, and the Table will at all times be supplied with the best the Market affords.

The RESTAURANT attached will at all times contain all the delicacies that can be procured, which will be served up at all hours, on short notice. He respectfully asks the public to give him a trial, fully assured that he can render satisfaction. G. W. DANNA'S. Dec. 9, 1853.

Julien's Monster Orchestra. WHEREVER Julien's name is known, the "Katy Did Polka" has an unrivalled popularity. There have been more copies of this piece sold, for the short time it has been issued, than any other musical composition ever published in America.—Christy's "The Other Side of Jordan," though it has not equaled in numbers the sale of the "Katy Did," yet the demand for it is great, and is driving out of market the many spurious copies purport- ing to be sung by Christy's Minstrel's. Ask for Christy's "The Other Side of Jordan." It has an illustrated title, and portrait of Earle H. Pierce, in costume. All others are spurious. Christy's new Songs, "Old Times Come Again," by Charles Con- taine, "Sally Primer" and "Julius from Kentucky" are having a glorious run. They are nightly sung to crowded audiences, and are universally sought after. WM. HALL & SON, 239 Broadway. Dec. 9, 1853.

THE HOME JOURNAL, for 1854. IN consequence of the great continually increas- ing demand for this elegantly printed, widely circulated, and universally popular Family News paper, we have, heretofore, been unable to furnish the back numbers to a very limited extent. To avoid this disappointment in future, we shall on the first of January next, print such an increas- ed edition as will enable us to supply new subscri- bers from that date. Besides the original produc- tions of the Editors—the Foreign and Domestic Correspondence of a large list of contributors—the spirit of the European Magazine—the selections of the most interesting publications of the day—the brief novels—the pungent stories—the sparkling wit and amusing anecdotes—the news and gossip of the Parisian papers—the personal sketches of pub- lic characters—the stirring scenes of the world re- live in—the chronicle of the news for ladies—the fashions and fashionable gossip—the facts and outlines of news—the pick of English information—the wit, humor and pathos of the times—the essays on life, literature, society and morals, and the usual variety of careful choosings from the wis- dom of English periodical literature, criticism, poetry, etc.—several new and attractive fea- tures of remarkable interest will enrich and give value to the new series of the Journal.
